Design Center is a single software tool for the specification, design, and programming of a Vantage lighting control system by a certified Vantage Dealer. This easy-to-use software allows for simple configuration and management of a Vantage system, which includes additional features such as preconfigured custom CCT profiles, user interface management, and remote programming.

Features & Benefits

Use a single software tool for lighting and home automation design and programming

Integrate lighting, climate, and shades with premier partners

Manage user interfaces, keypads, Equinox screens, and apps

Specifications

General Info

| Product Line | Vantage | Application Sector | Residential |
|---|---|---|---|
| Type | Accessory | | |